

U.K-DAVE ELLIS BLUES BAND: Live 2002,
4 track promo C.D.

Dave advises me this is a promotional tool, and what a tool! It rips right out of your speakers and grabs you firmly by the short n curlies in a Strat fuelled Stevie Ray riffin' frenzy. The first half of the CD are Dave's own entitled 'Liquor Store Blues' and 'Telephone Blues' both solid rockers, the 'solid' part coming from Martin Sage on Bass and Steve Ramsden on drums.

"Dave, can you play de blues in a Buddy Guy style?"

"Yes I can"

And YES he can. 'Leave My Little Girl Alone' gets a wicked treatment, soaring and swooping, soulful and savage. Simply superb. And to finish his bit, 'Shake Your Money Maker' with a big tip of the hat, and slide of the hand, to the Jeremy Spencer version. And to finish my bit, "Its rough and it's raw and it won't make you snore"

All the relevant details are on the excellent web site daveellisblues.com so no excuses not to get one of these freebies to inspire you to get along to see the band.
